YOUR INSTRUCTIONS

Because we communicate through the Internet, you agree that we are entitled to assume that you have authorized all transactions once your access codes have been entered. This will not apply if you have notified us to disable access to your accounts because your access codes have been misplaced, lost or stolen and you have a reference number to prove that. Our records of your transactions will be proof of any instruction you have given us, unless you can prove to the contrary.

You are responsible for giving correct information and instructions when registering for Internet Banking and when conducting transactions via the website.

We will try to assist if you make a mistake when giving us an instruction, but we will not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by your error. We will also not be liable for payments made by you to unintended recipients due to the input of incorrect information, nor are we responsible for the verification of the identity of recipients. We cannot reverse duplicate or erroneous payments you make to other accounts without the specific consent of the account holder. Our role is simply to pass your instructions on to where the account is held and we will not be liable for any act or omission on the part of such institution.

Certain transactions may not be terminated, such as the purchase of pre-paid products made available via Internet Banking.

Unless otherwise stated in a product agreement, all transactions will be subject to the same turnaround times that apply to the same transactions, accounts and customer profile, if done at an Equity Bank Branch.

An instruction will only be deemed to have been received by us once we have confirmed receipt. If you are unsure as to whether a transaction has been processed you should contact us before you re-submit the instruction. This is because re-submitting an instruction may cause us to process the same transaction twice, for which we will not be liable.
